CRS Data Announces MLS Partners in North Carolina Property data company supports two new realtor groups

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – April 9, 2014 – CRS Data, a leading provider of public record information for real estate, banker and financial professionals in the U.S., has announced long-term agreements with the Sanford Area Association of REALTORS® and the Highlands-Cashiers Board of REALTORS®. These strategic partnerships further solidify the company's growth as a leading supplier of property data.

With more than 180 members of the Sanford Area Association of REALTORS® and more than 300 members of the Highlands-Cashiers Board of REALTORS®, these new partnerships give CRS Data the opportunity to expand its reach in North Carolina by providing reliable property data and superior customer service to realtors across the state.

"We are very excited to expand our reach in North Carolina with both the Sanford Area Association of REALTORS® and the Highlands-Cashiers Board of REALTORS® by providing our reliable property data," said Rob Williamson, director of sales for CRS Data. "We have grown considerably in the past five years and our new partners in North Carolina have enabled us to further meet the needs of successful real estate agents with a need for the most accurate data backed by award-winning customer service."

Headquartered in Knoxville, Tenn., CRS Data currently provides access to comprehensive property data resources in more than 12 states and 500 counties. The company most recently expanded its data service to include 67 counties in Florida. Servicing bankers, MLSs, appraisers, investors, and other specialty financial customers, CRS Data is focused on providing accurate and timely property data, quality products and unparalleled customer satisfaction.
