CRS Data Announces Partnership with Columbus Board of REALTORS®

Property data company signs 3-year agreement with real estate association

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. – June 16, 2014 – CRS Data, a leading provider of public record information for real estate, banker and financial professionals in the U.S., has announced a 3-year agreement with the Columbus Board of REALTORS®. The new partnership will grant more than 600 real estate agents and appraisers access to CRS Data's reliable tax property data.

"We're very pleased to connect our members with CRS Data's impressive customer service and thorough data that is accessible on iPhones, iPads and Androids," said La Trena Tyler-Jones, CEO of Columbus Board of REALTORS®. "As the industry moves to a paperless culture, it's become imperative that we offer the most forward-thinking data products, and CRS Data's suite is an obvious fit for our members."

With its impressive and growing membership, the Columbus Board of REALTORS® has become a go-to resource for real estate trends and information within the market. Their successful agents rely on the association's events, classes and resources as they provide impeccable service to potential homeowners in the area. CRS Data is looking forward to continuing to provide its members with the most reliable property data available today.

Headquartered in Knoxville, Tenn., CRS Data currently provides access to comprehensive property data resources in more than 12 states and 500 counties. The company most recently expanded its data service to include 67 counties in Florida. Servicing bankers, MLSs, appraisers, investors, and other specialty financial customers, CRS Data is focused on providing accurate and timely property data, quality products and unparalleled customer satisfaction.

“This is an exciting opportunity to partner with such a well-respected REALTOR® association in Georgia,” said Rob Williamson, director of sales for CRS Data. “As CRS Data has grown, it’s allowed us to tap into new territories and connect with more and more Georgia real estate agents. Our goal is to continue servicing all members by providing the most excellent customer service and property data available today.”
